JOINS PRESIDENTIAL RACE: ANNOUNCES '1969' CAMPAIGN TRAIL TOUR

After the release of the 4th single off his album Strange New Past, Seth Sentry is taking to the road again for another huge national tour this July/August. Launching his 1969 Campaign to bring hip hop to the Australian public, there is no doubting that Seth Sentry is the perfect candidate for the job.

Joining Seth on the tour is one of the fastest rising hip hop acts in Australia, REMI, who appears on the track, Nobody Like Me taken from the Strange New Past album. Although it may not 'Trump' Seth's record-breaking 50 show tour last year, the 1969 Campaign Trail will be his biggest feat in terms of momentousness. Coming off the back of an AIR Award for 'Best Hip Hop Release', an ARIA Award for 'Best Urban Release' and appearances at a string of Summer festivals (including Falls Festival), Seth is on a winning streak and isn't looking to break it any time soon.

Kicking off his 1969 Campaign Trail in Ipswich, QLD, Seth is going to be hitting every state including multiple stops in Western Australia, New South Wales and Victoria. The tour will begin on the 30th of June running all they way until the 13th of August.

Tickets will be available for pre-sale on Tuesday 26th of April and on sale to the general public as of Wednesday 27th of April.

Seth Sentry is on a fast track to the top and with his recent acclaimed success, this tour is looking to be one for the ages. So get behind your local MC and show the world how smart you are
